DEMOCRACY AND EDUCATION

THE FIRST POSTWAR VOLUME

MIDLANDER

When this book is placed in your hands the college year of 1946 will be at an end. Within its pages you will doubtless find many things that will make you pause for a moment and lose yourself in dreams of the days you have just experienced.

You will remember how the student body began to increase and how the college took on a postwar appearance. You will remember the boys drifting in one by one, returning from various branches of the service to resume their education. College life hadn't been the same without them, and you welcomed them back. You will definitely remember how the college returned to its wide-scale athletic program and how you rooted for your team from the side lines. You can't forget burning the midnight oil as you crammed for exams, biting your fingernails in class, nor the Thursday night dances. You will remember how you learned to do without butter and how you waited for the mail to arrive each morning. You can't forget the color of the leaves in the autumn, the snows that came in the winter and how you walked among the daffodils in the spring.

Yes, these things were a part of your life at Middle Tennessee State, but foremost in your mind will be those democratic ideals that this institution and its faculty have instilled in you as you sought a bit of knowledge. They will never fade into obscurity but will always remain a vital part of your life.

In order that you may reminisce and that you may have something to cause you always to cling to Middle Tennessee State as your Alma Mater, the staff offers you this twenty-first volume of the MIDLANDER.

Herein are your daydreams—

F O R E W O R D

D E D I C A T I O N

Since the last publication of the MIDLANDER peace has come to the world. The student body has welcomed back throughout the year the boys who have returned.

Because we welcome them back and because they postponed their education to preserve the democratic principles for which this institution stands, we dedicate to them, the veterans of World War II, this volume of the MIDLANDER.

We recognize through the following list the veterans who were enrolled in Middle Tennessee State during the fall and winter quarters.

TRAINING SCHOOL

Across the street from the main college campus is the Training School. It is here that the child begins his education, and it is here that the prospective teachers take their first step in the field of pedagogy.

The purposes of the Training School are to create a friendly, lifelike atmosphere for the child in order that he may put forth his best effort in classroom activities, and to instruct the college students in a teacher's procedure with her students. It, with its faculty, makes up a very vital part of the college.

In Memoriam

NEAL DOUGLAS FRAZIER

August 2, 1885

November 30, 1945

LIKE the melody that lingers on after the song has died, Neal Douglas Frazier's magnanimous spirit will live on in the lives of those he taught. He was the incarnation of a romantic conception of ideal love that ennobled the aspirations of hundreds, whose lives he touched intimately. He possessed a sensitive soul that loved richly the good, and abhorred the sham and pretentious people. He was always tolerant of the efforts of those who sought to rise above the common prides and prejudices of little men by looking for the best in human achievement. He strongly deplored the dogmas that "bind men to dark houses of decay, where truth eternal stands at bay." Until the very last, his eyes looked for good things to do for others, and "things still to love and hold! Mayhap to take away with me—into the night."

ASSOCIATED

The Associated Student Body is an all-student organization in which it is possible to seek and to bring to light the needs and desires of the students as individuals, as groups, and as a united body. It strives to unify interests, opinions and methods of procedure both within the student body and between the student body and the faculty. The spirit of the Associated Student Body is that of individual responsibility for, and cooperative support of, the ideals that are in harmony with democracy.

The three branches of government—executive, judicial, legislative—give every student the opportunity to offer suggestions as to the best ways of accomplishing these aims.

Climaxing the season with a memorable trip to Atlanta to participate in the South-eastern AUU tournament the Blue Raiderettes returned to intercollegiate competition this year with a record of eleven victories and four defeats.

Advancing to the semifinals in the AUU tournament the Middle Tennessee State College girls were eliminated by the national champion Goldblumes.

During the playing season the team defeated such opponents as the Conners Oklahoma College girls; the CAPers, West Tennessee champions; the Atlanta Y.W.C.A.; Camp Forrest; the Nashville Business College and other outstanding sextettes. Only the Goldblumes defeated the Raiderettes by more than a single point.

Nancy Aikman led the scoring for the team while Captain Betty Hart was a fine floor leader and defensive player. Mary Ann Zumbro, playing from a guard position, was a constant offensive threat averaging five points each game. Imogene Queen completed this excellent defensive trio.

Sharing scoring honors with Miss Aikman were Betty Cloyd, Mary Ellen Roberts, and Faye Kent, used interchangeably by Coach Nance Jordan throughout the season.

Capable replacement material came from the reserves of the squad, including Jane Brandon, Jacquelyn McMurtury, Jane Bratten, Louise Arnold, Beatrice Thurman, and Sarah Maxwell.

R A I D E R E T T E S

R A I D E R S

For the first time since the season of 1941-42, the Blue Raiders were playing ball again this year as M. T. S. C.'s first postwar team. With few of the old letter men back, and with very little experience behind it, the all-veteran squad, under the coaching of O. L. Freeman, won its share of the season's games.

The Raiders got off to a late start and had a very short season. During this season the team defeated Austin Peay twice, David Lipscomb, Woodbury, and came up against many other strong teams.

Gleason Frazier and Gene McIntire were always in there to take the ball off the back-board while Dave Adamson and Sam Wilson played a flashy floor game. Teaming up with these four was Charles Phillips who always came in from the side for his share of the shots.

Frequent relief was given by John Greer, Joe Davis, and Thomas Cole. However, the entire squad saw some action in the majority of the games. The other members include Loyde Middleton, Bill Woodruff, Billy Burch, Cowden McCord, Joe Maddox, Elbert Sullivan, Tommy Jordan, John Davis, and Willie Dunnaway.
